

How long has the present owner owned the practice?

The longer the present owner has been in practice, the more likely he or she has been successful. People don't stay in business if they are not making money.